

Please count me as against using cell phones on airplanes. It's bad enough that we have to put up with them everywhere else - a person cannot get away from someone having a conversation on a cell phone in a plane.